

I am opposed to further consolidation of broadcast ownership. Without safeguards, it is quite likely that all broadcasting could be controlled by a monopoly. It has been said time and time again .. "those who control the media/airwaves control the people".

Ensuring democracy does not include being ruled by a monopoly.